BIG STRIVE WINS THE MATCH.

The track at Lakeside improved as the racing went along yesterday, the attendance was fair and betting in line with it. Only two pronounced favorites, Big Strive in the match and Pinchback in the first half of the six furlongs, though Terrific in the second event was an equal choice with Adrienna and C H Whelan. Foster Bros. captured two races with Eloroy and Lollie Eastin, both at good odds, and Pete Clay rode the winners in the two-year-old races. Miss Star made the running into the stretch for the opening race when she gave it up, and Terragnes, a daughter of Terra Cotta, won handily from Mildred D and Minnie Miller.

The second race was always between Terrific and Adrienne, and the finish a close one, Pete Clay outfinishing little Hothersall and landing Terrific the winner by a head.

Barnato was most fancied in the second half of the two-year-old race, on account of his second to Ella T last week. Fourth was the best he could do, Clematis winning a good race from Tom Anderson after the last named had made the running.

In the match race at a mile for $500 a side, Waterman opened favorite, but the money went on Big Strive, and he was an odds on favorite at the post. The pair ran together, alternating in the lead till the three quarters, when Big Strive began to draw clear. In the stretch Waterman came up and at the eighth pole Cassin tried to get through on the inside, but failed. He pulled round, and Waterman came fast, but swerved badly at the sixteenth pole. Big Strive winning, all out, by an open length.

Mamie G and Ramona were about equal favorites in the mile and a sixteenth. At the end, Freeman brought up Eloroy, caught the leaders, and beat Constant out by half a length, with Mamie G third.

Pinchback rewarded his backers in the sixth race, winning handily from Martha R, with Dr. France, who had made the running, third.

Anna Mayes led most of the way in the last race, but Lollie Eastin collared her in the last twenty yards and won by half a length. Helen Wren, who was off badly, beat Merry Monarch a head for third.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

There's a high-class newspaper man in Chicago who, with his wife, is almost a regular when the game is good. Of course both bet, he like the western man kept hotel, and she pretty wisely—for a woman. One afternoon in 1894, and when the Hawthorne track was in full blast, Mrs. — had a "good thing"—Ray S at St. Louis. She gave her spouse a $20 note with full directions. Gloucester was running in those days and Ray was one of its racing tools. Mr. — wandered to the first counter he came to, laid down the note and said something about Ray S. It was the Gloucester window that he had struck and he got a ticket—$0 to 20, Ray—pocketed it and wandered away. Later along the ticket was delivered, and, under suspicion, submitted to an expert friend, who soon saw the error and knowing Joe Ullman well, went to see him and have the bet shifted. Before he got to Ullman, the St. Louis race, with Ray S—a 4 to 5 shot—had been run and Ray S, beaten. In a second or two the Gloucester wire yielded up Ray as a winner. Result, $20 saved and $100 collected, purely through an error. The journalist—he reviews and comments nowadays—takes advantage of this result and always declares that his error was none at all, but a practical illustration of his own, for the benefit of misguided and altogether inferior femininity, which seeks wealth from a mine in which it has not the sagacity to properly delve.

AT LAW OVER STARTING MACHINES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 1.—The starting-gate war is now on, as the suit brought by E. Corrigan last Saturday against Thomas H. Williams, Jr., R. B. Milroy, Henry Ashe and others shows Mr. Corrigan is at the head of the company recently formed in this city that controls both the Forbes and Gray starting machine patents. These machines have the "outward and upward" movements. Mr. Corrigan claims the gate operated at the Bay District track several times, and invented by a fifteen year old boy named Wildemuth, is an infringement on the patents he controls. The Wildemuth barrier describes a half-circle before reaching its destination, above the horses' heads. The suit will be watched with great interest by racegoers all over the country.

TERRE HAUTE AND INDIANAPOLIS.

The recent short meetings of the Indiana tracks of Terre Haute and Indianapolis were successful, the latter most, because of a larger field and better weather. Terre Haute drew an average of 1,000 per day, and Indianapolis more than double that number. Both clubs will hold short fall meetings and may open two or three stakes each. Mark Farley of Chicago will manage both. He was working secretary and starter at the recent meetings and had phenomenal good fortune with the Creveling-Dwyer band. There was enthusiasm at the finishes, especially in Indianapolis. The fields averaged fairly well and even in class. The people took to the booking like ducks take to water. Gov. Mathews was at the Indianapolis track once or twice and rather enjoyed the sport he has opposed so strongly and understood so weakly.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Abe Levy, booking at Morris Park, gave Joe Ullman a curt answer last Wednesday and words led to blows.

A. H. & D. H. Morris have sold the four-year-old chestnut colt Paladin, by Hawkstone, out of Princess Palatine, to W. B. Sink for $1,800.

Ed Corrigan's smart Won't Dance, 3, by Longfellow—Can Dance, is being pointed for the Cincinnati Oaks, to be run at Oakley next Saturday, in which the best she has to meet are Lady Inez and Irish Lady.

W. O. B. Macdonough of California arrived at New York Wednesday and was one of those who enjoyed the sport at Morris Park in the afternoon. His two-year-old Orestes by Ormonde is quartered at Sheepshead Bay.
